

Accessing COBRA account information

Any Qualified Beneficiary on your insurance plan is permitted to get information about coverage and account status. Only one set of credentials can be used to access online account. If you are covered through COBRA but do not have online account access you may Contact Us for account details

To authorize another individual to access account and/or plan information, you will need to complete an Account Information Access Form.

Download the form here:

Account Information Access Request.pdf
